Administration Without Remuneration Is Agony!

Mindful of its future, proud of its past -- Carmel Valley as a community is noted for its many pleasant and constructive activities. Since CV is only one part of the County's large unincorporated area, none of these activities are supported by direct tax levy.

The Community Center provides a central meeting place for literally dozens of bustling civic and social groups, not to mention its role as a center for youth activities -- especially when the new swimming pool is completed this summer!

The Property Owners Association carries on the work of planning that the Valley may stay as much as possible as pleasant as it is, preserving as much as possible of those natural assets which the merchants and resort owners of the community must tackle their problems.

Since no formal governmental organization exists in Carmel Valley, these three organizations make the major decisions which affect the community.

All three of them have a similar difficulty -- and they have it every year. Although all their work is done by volunteers and no salaries are paid (except by the Chamber, which maintains a part-time executive secretary), there are nonetheless inescapable expenses such as stamps and stationery, rental of meeting places, occasional hiring of experts for special studies, etc., etc.

The Community Center of course is partly maintained by occasional rent payments from the other groups. But in large part, all three groups must depend on the hours given voluntarily by a dedicated minority and on the membership fees paid -- theoretically -- by a responsible majority.

But collecting membership fees is like the proverbial pulling of teeth.

All three organizations have complained unhappily about the slow receipts of membership fees. This is an annual affliction. It is no reflection on the efficiency of any of the three groups -- each is especially fortunate this year in having notably energetic and intelligent leadership. This sad state of affairs is in our opinion merely a commentary on the adhesive affinity which money seems to have for its possessor, and on the natural inertia of humankind!

Are you among those who meant to pay your dues... and somehow forgot... or who somehow assume of COURSE you paid... but somehow you didn't?

The annual dues:

For the Community Center, a mere $2.

For the CVPOA, a mere $3

For the Chamber of Commerce, $15.

It is hard to imagine any owner of a home of business in Carmel Valley who does not care enough about the community to belong to at least 2 of these three groups. (Ironically, some out-of-towners value the functions of these groups far beyond the membership fees. Mrs. Louise Zook of San Francisco, for example, sent $25 as

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I have just read about the proposed P. G. & E. warehouse on Schulte Road and I have some questions. Asking questions usually causes thinking and I get the feeling that there should be a lot of thinking about what looks like spot industrial zoning for Carmel Valley.

I would like to know how many people on Schulte Road really would like a warehouse and P. G. & E. trucks for neighbors. I would like to have explained to me how an admitted congestion of a church, a school, and a retirement home on an intersection of roads is an ideal place for a truck dept. Don't we need less congestion rather than more?

Why must rich farm land be used for industry, be it public or private? Why can't industry find a canyon or hillside cul-de-sac to locate out of sight?

Throughout the zoning battles, and let's face it they are battles, we hear the words, "economic feasibility". I'd prefer to hear the more concrete words "human values". These are historically more concrete words because human values, such as beauty, brotherhood, and love persist whereas economic feasibility changes as new methods of speculation and exploitation arise. Right now it's P. G. & E. with electrical maintenance problems and for our children it will probably be an energy-converter-atomic reactor maintenance problem. They will probably object to the buzzing noise and heliport, just as I object to trucks, and so on as my neighbors.

In short, down with warehouses on the floor of the valley and up with human values!

her renewal contribution to the CVPOA and many others have contributed from $2 to $5 beyond the requirement.) But the membership is still 85 below what it was last year, and as Col. Brown appropriately remarked last week, "A check in the mail is the EASY way out!"

Have you sent yours?

What Is It Worth?

A MESSAGE FROM LARRY CUMMINGS, RED CROSS CHAIRMAN FOR UPPER CARMEL VALLEY (AND MEMBER OF THE AMBULANCE CREW).

I'm sure every one in the Valley by this time is aware that we have a Red Cross ambulance on 24 hour duty, but I wonder if they know very much about the crew which mans the ambulance? Who are they, and are they paid?

To the first, I will reply that the men are your next door neighbors, businessmen, teachers, or a variety of professions. They are men that have volunteered to be on the Fire Department and then have gone on to volunteer for additional training to become one of the select on the Red Cross ambulance crew.

Are they paid?... Yes -- not in a monetary way, but in a way which as time passes seems a more substantial way. For you can put a price on a mother's heartfelt thanks when you have restored breathing to her child or the grateful gasp of a man suffocating when pressure oxygen is applied.

Their pay is the thoughts the men on the crew take with them after each call, but not always are the memories warm ones. There is also the dismal ache that comes when you must stand and hear the doctor tell the parents their child will no longer come at their call, or a daughter that her mother has passed from this life, or the moans of the injured at a senseless wreck on the highway.

This is the other side of the picture you take with you when you return from a call in the wee hours of the morning and try to pick up a few hours sleep before going to earn your daily bread.

What is it worth? A hard one to answer but you can show how you feel when the Red Cross Volunteer comes to your door. Give what you feel it is worth.

Alcan, P.G.&E. To Plancom Next Week

Valley items on the agenda of the County Planning Commission for next Tuesday, March 31, include zoning applications for two subdivisions, a car wash and a service yard; use permits for a radio tower, on-sale liquor in a restaurant, and an Episcopal day school.

Alcan Pacific Co., developers of Hacienda Carmel, have filed for the rezoning of approximately 350 acres opposite Via Mallorca to an SP (special) district. A luxury housing development with clubhouse facilities planned for the site would be submitted for a use permit within 30 days if the zoning change is approved. The Alcan petition is scheduled for 1:50 p. m.

Hidden Hills Subdivision #2 in the Los Laureles Grade area is the subject of a rezoning application from interim zoning to residential; with the restriction that lots may not be further divided beyond the boundaries designated in the subdivision map. Lot sizes are roughly 2 1/2 acres apiece. This hearing is set for 2:30.

Although Hidden Hills is being developed by well-known Carmel Valley resident Ed Hogan, the land is not located within the jurisdiction of the Carmel Valley Master Plan.

Carmel Rancho, Inc., has applied for a zoning permit to set up a car wash business on the shopping center grounds at the mouth of the Valley.

A zoning change from K-G-B-4 to C-2 (industrial) is sought by P.G.&E. for a 3-acre piece of property off Schulte Road in back of Carmelo School, where a service center for maintaining and storing the company's trucks and other equipment has been planned. Also on the agenda is an application by Charles Fuller of Berwick Manor to change a lot on Berwick Drive from duplex zoning to single-family residential with a smaller lot size.

The Carmel Broadcasting Co. (KRML) has applied for a use permit to erect a radio tower not over 153' high in the court area adjacent to their offices. Also at the shopping center is an on-sale liquor application for a restaurant to be operated in connection with the planned Carmel Rancho Motor Lodge. Plancom will hear these at 3:15 and 3:20 respectively.

Lot 9 of the James Meadows tract is the site chosen by All Saints Parish in Carmel for a proposed Episcopal Day School, chapel, and headmaster's house on 7 1/2 acres owned by A. A. McFall. The application for a use permit is scheduled for hearing at 4:10 p. m.

POA's Agree On Action

Carmel Valley Property Owners Association's Board of Directors, supported by the presidents of the Mid-Valley, Rancho Rio Vista, and Carmel Knolls POA's agreed last week on two cases which will be heard at the March 31 session of the County Planning Commission.

They recommended against the application of P.G. & E. for rezoning of 3 acres behind Carmelo School for a service center, objecting on the basis of "spot zoning."

"We realize there is probably a need, or will be in the future, for such a facility, but feel that P.G. & E. should try to find a Valley location more suitably zoned," observed Col. George Brown of the CVPOA.

Representatives of the 4 groups also agreed that a formula for use of steep hillside land should be carefully evolved before any more large scale hillside developments are begun, such as that sought by Alcan Pacific on 49 acres of a 344-acre parcel north of Carmel Valley Road in the Mid-Valley area. Deferment of this application will thus be requested on March 31.

As Col. Brown explained it, "The point is to protect our master plan, which clearly states that the population projection is based on the premise that most of the development in Carmel Valley will be on the Valley floor or on only mildly steep terrain. If the one-acre minimum count is also applied to the steeper hillsides, we shall wind up with a far greater density than the master plan projects."

Ribbons From Etap Ranch

Proving a staunch follower in her sister's footsteps, Diana Young, second daughter in the Glen Young family, was high point winner in her age group (8 and under) at the recent Spring Horse Show at Etap Ranch in Corral de Tierra. Diana took first place in horsemanship and pole bending.

Anne Warrington was the Valley's other first place winner, capturing a purse of $16.50 for West Pleasure. Anne also took second in western horsemanship in the 12-14 class, and third in working pairs with Cindy Young.

Cindy's other ribbons included three more thirds for horsemanship, 11 and under, novice; pole bending, and horsemanship, in the same age group.

The Youngs' third daughter, Judy, received a second place for horsemanship in the 6 and under class.

DON'T MISS VISITING THE EASTER RABBIT'S UNDERGROUND HOUSE AT CARMEL RANCHO.

Mr. Rabbit is a friendly fellow, ready to give eggs to his young pals. His housekeeping equipment is rabbit style, even to the portraits of his furry relatives, on the walls. Only three days are left, to visit him. Thursday and Friday from 3 to 5 in the afternoon, and all day Saturday (9 to 5) except for the noon hour. Oh yes... if you arrive and he's out on a short carrot break, he'll hop back soon. Look for his Hole-House in the field below the Union Station.

Our Community Room (across the street from the bank) is a busy place these days. Board meetings of "good works" groups. Get-togethers of property owners' associations. In this room you'll usually find an art show on the walls, and you're welcome to view it on week days between 9 and 4, except for the noon hour. Right now the Russell Swan oil paintings are hanging there. In April, artist Gerry Wasserman will show his newest work... paintings and sculpture... open to the public from April 7th.

Scene at Golden Charm House of Beauty last week... pretty Evelyn Ogawa, the owner, sitting before the mirror trying on a gorgeous hat of shocking pink organza over her chic coiffure. Evelyn was off for New York that day to attend THE big meeting of the year, for people in this field. Evelyn keeps in the know and has a lovely fashion sense of her own.

Anybody at your house a Beatles fan?? At Carmel Rancho Pharmacy there are now Beatles gum packages. Along with your gum, you get five Beatles photos. Imagine. We're told that there are sixty photos in the series, each one numbered on the back. We're told also that there's a tremendous lot of swapping going on, in order to get favorites.

People like to visit Carmel Rancho for many reasons, but here's one of the most novel. A nice man comes daily to train his Labrador retriever, down in the south field. The dog is coming along beautifully... we've been watching. And children who visited Suds & Scissors Pet Shop this last week fell in love with the fuzzy little white rabbits for sale there. (Hurry to get one - they go fast.) Did you know that in addition to many fine shops with a wide variety of things for sale, Carmel Rancho now has dentists, a lawyer, and an accounting firm? The latter two are housed in the new building... entrance near the flagpole as you enter.

Brinton's Rancho Hardware has been adding things and rearranging things of late. The giftwares section, for example, now offers you more to choose from. Great place to buy bridal gifts! Outdoor furniture is now in focus, and you'll be happy to find that good looking chairs, chaises and umbrella tables need not cost a lot.

Count on Safeway to provide the things you need for egg dyeing and decorating... and plenty of yummy goodies for Easter morning happiness. At Carmel Rancho Pharmacy, too, you'll find paper goods for serving and for decorating your table. Delicious and prettily packaged boxes of chocolates you'll be proud to present - Whitman's... Hooper's... many fine brands.

We give you - for wonderful Easter Day listening - the Philharmonic program on KRML (starts at noon - 1200 on the dial). Broadcast live, from New York's famed Lincoln Center. Wagner: Prelude and Good Friday Music from "Parsifal"... also Bruckner's Symphony No. 7. And a Happy Easter to you all, whatever your plans for that day.

CARMEL JUNIOR HIGH

Dressed in appropriate green skirts, the Girls' Recreation Association of Carmel Junior High School spotlighted St. Patrick's Day with a tumbling show at the CJHS Parents' Club meeting.

Over sixty girls participated in the event directed by Mrs. Jean White.

Perhaps the outstanding performance of the evening was turned in by eighth grader Connie Wermuth, whose skills on the trampoline included suicide dives, back lay-outs, cradles and full brandis. Miss Wermuth's series of handsprings brought a gasp of amazement from the appreciative audience.

The show included skill routines in tumbling, gymnastics, free exercise and trampolining. Mrs. William Purdy, music instructor at CJHS, accompanied the routines with appropriate piano renditions.

Speaking for the GRA organization, eighth-grader Kathy Parker presented Mrs. White with flowers for her time and effort. Over $35 was earned from the sale of coffee and cookies at intermission. The GRA will use this money to purchase awards for outstanding performers.

A RELAXED MOMENT BACKSTAGE for the cast of Finian's Rainbow catches, clockwise, Jim Sweeney, Jory Hopkins, Lory Swan, Lanny Eyre, Pam Goodsell, and Conrad Selvig. Jim and Conrad alternate as Og the Leprechaun; Lory and Pam share the leading role of Susan. Jory and Wendy Lefler (not shown) dance the part of Susan the Silent. Lanny is an MPC student who sings the male lead, Woody.

Easter Vacation

BY JIM SWEENEY

The buildings that house the 592 students of the Carmel Junior High School are having a short rest this week.

Along with most of the other schools across the nation, the CJHS is honoring Easter with a short vacation. The doors closed at 3:00 p.m. on March 20 and will reopen the morning of March 30.

This is a welcome relief to all, I'm sure!

After the students return to class March 30, they will not have another vacation until school closes in June.

With the April 2 opening night of "Finian's Rainbow" rapidly approaching, Carmel Junior High students are hard at work selling tickets in an all-out effort to reach their goal of 1500.

Directed by Miss Diane Hardy, the "Finian's Rainbow" production promises to be well-worth the price of admission - 75¢ for adults, and 35¢ for students.

Mrs. Willie Belle Mason is still chuckling over the "continental" display of affection shown by her first period Algebra class recently. Mrs. Mason received a standing ovation when she entered the room... Speaking of Algebra classes, we understand Ann Foster is having trouble holding on to her papers in class...

Wonder why Chris Bava puts in sentry duty near the crafts room, especially with a bucket on his head??? Wonder what it is about journalism class that causes Jay Graham to light up like the proverbial Christmas tree??? Steve Bashline is now in the library business buying and selling books constantly... Rick Taylor has more fun doing nothing than anything we've met yet. Wonder what would happen if he channeled all that effort in the same direction? WOW!!

Jim Sweeney looked like an Olympic sprinter last week running from Finian's Rainbow practice to lay-out the Carmel Junior High-Lights March 20th issue, then back to rehearsal... Miss Pat Vincent, journalism instructor, was surprised to hear of student government president Steve Meadows' announcement that she was supervising the school yearbook in addition to the weekly page in the Outlook and the school newspaper, the High-Lights. Wonder when she finds time to teach two social studies classes and two physical education classes in addition to the journalism assignments?... While on the teacher kick, let's not overlook hardworking Miss Diane Hardy, who puts in so many hours at CJHS she should move her bed there! Only a little longer before it pays off in Finian's Rainbow.

Wonder why Kim Schaurer was black and blue after English class? Funny thing happened to science instructor Herb Reuter's banjo. As soon as he started playing the instrument, it had to be put in the repair shop. Kinda hurtin' maybe??? Art instructor Joe Broadman has his group THE EARWIGS going full speed ahead. Object? 'Fun' Raising Community Center Annual Meet

By Martha Senger

Enthusiastic discussion of the physical and financial progress being made on the swimming pool dominated the 13th annual meeting of the Carmel Valley Community Center last Wednesday evening. The Board of Directors was unanimous in its praise and appreciation for the support the community has given the project thus far, and is confident that support will continue until the final $7000.00 is raised and converted into a dressing room, deck and fencing.

Beverly (Mrs. Jay) Chamberlain and Robert E. Jones were elected to serve three-year terms on the Board of Directors replacing Martha Huff who resigned and Lois Robinson whose term expired.

Jim Smith was re-elected President of the Board; Doyt Early, vice-president, and Mrs. Chamberlain to the office of Treasurer. Other Board members continuing to serve are Lou Allaire, Betty Antoncich, James Brock, Don Cummings, Mark Starr, Mary Wilsey, and Tom Verga.

Col. Russ Whiting, introduced as the new Coordinator of fund-raising activities, stressed the need for early payment of pledges made for this year and also the need for donations from those who have not previously contributed to the Pool fund.

So varied and interesting are the coming events planned by this finance committee that they are referred to as "fun" raising by the members. On April 17 there will be a Hootenanny at Sunset School Auditorium. Also on schedule are a theater party, a barbecue, a mink-shrug raffle and a Hole-in-One contest.

CONSTRUCTION

Doyt Early reported that "nice progress" is being made on the construction of the pool and it should be ready for the first splash in June. The gunnite job is completed and curing and the long, detailed job of plumbing has begun. Mr. Early called attention to the generous donations of labor and materials which are making the pool "even better than originally hoped for."

Bob Jones told the meeting of the "terrific job" being done by several of the Center's young people in raising funds through their Saturday movie project. Their work is netting over $25.00 a week for the pool. The Board joined him in expressing an expectation that the pool's completion will mark the beginning, and provide the basis, for a wide range of youth activities within the Community Center.

YOUTH CENTER

At the time of last year's annual meeting, there were many who felt that the Community Center was on the verge of closing its doors. As the Valley had grown in population, concentration, and meeting facilities, it had outgrown its old need for a Commu-

Planners Endorse Plan

The second public hearing on the Area General Plan will be held tomorrow March 26 at 8:00 p. m. in the City Council Chambers on the corner of Pacific and Madison Streets in Monterey.

County Planning Commissioner Keith Evans, who is also chairman of the Area Planning Commission, said last week during an address to the League of Women Voters that he believes the Area General Plan, when presented to PlanCom, will be adopted with only minor reservations. "There is nothing in the plan", he stated, "that reasonable people cannot sit down together and work out."

The Area Plan, according to Evans, should eventually be incorporated into the Monterey County Master Plan, giving added strength to both documents. The County Master Plan is almost ready for adoption, he said, and pointed out that fewer than a quarter of California counties have such an official plan, so that Monterey County, if not in the planning forefront, is ahead of most counties.

Evans was one of 7 speakers from the various jurisdictions on the Peninsula, each of them representing his own Planning Commission. All agreed that the Area General Plan should provide the most effective way to preserve the scenic and cultural heritage of the Peninsula. Each also agreed to work for the cooperation of his governing body.

ity Center. The past months, culminating in last Wednesday's meeting, showed the Center's ability to meet the Valley's new need -- that of providing healthy and enjoyable recreational facilities for the Valley's children.

In its now vital role, the Community Center needs the support of each Valley resident. If you are not a member of the Center and would like to join, or have not yet renewed your membership, you may do so simply by sending $2.00 (per couple or single membership) to Carmel Valley Community Center, Carmel Valley, California or bringing it to the Thunderbird Shop, Carmel Valley Village.

we certainly agreed that the boys are great 'mudders' at any rate!"

A complete roster of the Carmel Valley Little League appears elsewhere on this page

A complete schedule of games will be printed in the Outlook as soon as it becomes available -- hopefully, by next week.

"It was a lot better than last year, when we had to hold the Little League tryouts entirely in the outfield because the infield was one big puddle!"

Thus did Tom Waters report on Little League tryouts held last Saturday despite intermittent rains.

Each manager looked as worried as he did, Tom says, because he starts out with a nucleus of a few players carried over from last year and has to build a new team within the rules of the league. Only a certain number of boys in each age bracket can be on one team, for example, so a certain balance must be maintained in recruiting.

Each manager must pick up new players to fill certain positions but can only have so many 12 year olds, so many 11's so many 10's and 9's. Then he has to see a pitching ability in a boy because the pitchers are so important. Most boys would like to pitch but only a few really can.

A manager must look just briefly at a boy who says he's a first baseman and "see" if he can picture him as a pitcher later on. Tryouts are fairly brief and so is the regular season, but the play is good for the boy, the family, the community, the country and the future!

"We did our best in choosing teams," Waters concluded, "and

Plans for the BUCKS FOR BATS fundraising drive for Carmel Valley Little League are proceeding with dispatch. Coordinator Roger Sherman has organized his area chiefs, who are adults who will cover different areas throughout the entire Valley. Area Chiefs will be assisted by Baseball Players in these same areas. The Day is Saturday, April 11.

The drive lasts just the one day and is expected that sufficient funds will be raised to offset the cost involved in the Little League Operation for this year at least. The drive will not be an annual affair by any means. This method was devised by the staff as a better method than the old standard one of collecting by passing the hat at every ball game. Under the old system the same parents and fans were solicited twice at least. Naturally donations were small and the burden not distributed. Under the new BUCKS FOR BATS PLAN anybody with an interest in helping can do so.

A booth will be set up at the Carmel Rancho Shopping Center on that day, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith. BUCKS FOR BATS Posters are being done by our local artist Frank O'Neal.

Control center for entire project will be set up in the Village Shopping Center in Tom Waters' Office where Roger Sherman and staff will be tallying the results.

Uniforms Are Donated

It has come as a surprise to some parents of newly registered boys that the baseball uniforms are given to the Little League. Many thought that like Boy Scout, Cubs, Brownies, Girl Scout, et al, the boy must buy his own. Each boy supplies only his own glove and shoes. The equipment and uniforms are donated.

NOTICE

To all boys who registered and did not show up for tryouts on Saturday: Stop at Little League Headquarters in the Village (Tom Waters' Insurance office) and have your name placed on one of the farm teams. We would like to have at least one more team. There is a place on a team for every boy who is interested in playing baseball.

"SHEIK" RICUPERO, appropriately dressed for paying a formal call, congratulated Garden Club president Salih Mehdy (left) in the latter's native language (illustrated above, more authentic than the costume; Mehdy for some years taught Arabic at the DLI).

The occasion? The 4th anniversary of the Oleander Garden Shop, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Mehdy. Guests received gifts of plants and delectable Arabic refreshments. Welcomed especially was Clyde Hitchcock, who has been convalescing from a heart attack, but walked from his Adobe Oaks Motel for the celebration.

Women's Club To Elect Officers

BY JULIE POWER

Jim Ziegler will show his slides of Carmel Valley at the Carmel Valley Women's Club Tea to be held at the Carmel Valley Community Center on Wednesday, April 1.

Mr. Ziegler has made the Valley his home for the past eight years and he is an outstanding amateur photographer who loves nature and Carmel Valley. As he has traveled from river bed to mountain top, either on foot or horseback, he has photographed the beauty spots and has compiled his slides to show the subtle changes of the seasons, producing little scenes that reveal the moods of nature as it changes from Spring to Fall and presents a different type of beauty. Mr. Ziegler's slides are famous in the Valley and though he has shown them before they are worthy of repetition and always welcomed because they are scenes of the homeland we all love.

Officers and directors for the ensuing year will be nominated and elected at the business meeting. Also changes in the By-Laws will be voted upon and since a two-thirds majority is required for By-Law changes, members are urged to be present to support their officers and directors.

Mrs. Jack Lundin is Chairman of the Tea and will be assisted by Mesdames Frank Porter, Clyde Harris, Otts Anker, Karl Kuntz, Walter Sears, Mark Fields, Thomas Waters, Peter Girard and Hal Graham.

(Wonder what kind of decorations Mrs. Ollason, president, will have for April Fool's Day?)

Easter Week At Community Chapel

Maundy Thursday Communion Service will be held at 7:30 p. m. at Carmel Valley Community Chapel. The Chapel Choir under the direction of Mrs. Seung Park will sing "Let us Break Bread Together," and Lindy Doud will sing "There Was a Green Hill Far Away." The Meditation by the Rev. Don Johnson will be, "Is It I, Lord?"

Easter Sunday Services will be held at 9:45 and 11:00 p. m. The Chapel Choir will sing "Worthy is the Lamb", from Handel's Messiah; the Junior Choir will sing "Chimes of Easter." The Rev. Johnson's sermon will be entitled, "He is Risen." Mr. Seung Park at the organ will be playing special Easter music.

The Rev. Johnson will also conduct the Easter Sunrise Service at Lovers' Point in Pacific Grove at 6:00 a. m. Sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Ministers' Association, this event will include special music by various choirs. Rev. Johnson will deliver the sermon entitled, "He is Risen."

CUB SCOUT NEWS

BY JEANNINE BOTTARO

Colorful new Totem neckerchiefs, awarded at Pack meetings to the den earning the most awards for the month, recently went to the hard-working boys of Den 5 for the second consecutive month. As a surprise climax to the meeting, the Cubs sang "Happy Birthday" to Cubmaster Ben Viljoen, and Scoutmaster Bob Ray presented him a Cub Scout tie rack on behalf of the Pack.

Scoutmaster Ray also introduced and congratulated four new Den chiefs who will assist the Den mothers: Don Parks, Den 1; Dwight Jones, Den 3; Donald Steiny, Den 5; Randy Sinclair, Den 6.

During the awards ceremony Vincent Frumkin, Harold La Grange, and Robert Otter, all of Den 6, won Wolf badges. Robert also received a Wolf gold arrow.

Jason Johnson and Teddy Hall were awarded wolf silver arrows; Bryan Hermanson received his Bear badge, a gold and a silver arrow. New Denners are Mike Wellborn, Ralph Meikeljohn, Richard Hartigan and Don Von-arr. Assistant Denners include Robert Harris, Allan Stie and Ricky Jones.

Thoroughly enjoyed was a "Pack sing" led by Den 1.

Coming events include many exciting plans. The April Pack meeting will feature a Mardi Gras, and Cubs will prepare costumes all month. The boys are also anticipating a space derby at the May Pack meeting. Mr. Viljoen announced that Den 3 won the inspection and Den 4 the attendance count; boys from both groups will take part in the flag ceremony at the April meeting.

The boys will also participate in the Audubon Society activities with the help of Mrs. Viola Hansen. Mr. Viljoen also said that in keeping with the policy of all Cub Scout Packs, parents must accompany their son to the Pack meeting before he can receive his award from now on.

CUBS THANK DONORS

Denmother for Den 4, Mrs. Frank Bresk, says that the recent ad she placed in the Outlook requesting furniture for her den was marvelously successful. She received a trestle table and benches, a set of table and chairs, a chest of drawers and a bookcase. Denmother and some very happy boys wish to thank the generous donors. Whose gifts have helped turn the Bresk garage into a fine den. Among their activities, the boys have visited the P. G. Museum.

On the same day as the Carmel Kite Festival, the Cubs of Den 3 had their own kite contest on the Tularcitos school grounds. Each boy had to design and build his own kite and awards were given in many categories. Every boy turned up a winner!

the Outlook on Carmel

Council Candidates

by Marjory Lloyd

This week in our series of articles on candidates for election to the city council on April 14, the Outlook presents Paul Hazdovac. During past weeks Joseph Danysh, Stephen A. Grant, Roland Scheffler and Gunnar Norberg have been presented. Other candidates are Mayor Eben Whittlesey and W. C. Phelps.

Paul Hazdovac

"Carmel is a small hub in the middle of a great wheel which is starting to squeak and unless some oil is put on it will wear out," is the way Paul Hazdovac, business manager for a local mechanical contracting firm, describes what is happening to Carmel.

He proposes that the oil should be all the people of the outlying areas thinking on the right plane as citizens of Carmel. This would be accomplished by annexing these areas to the city.

"The policy of the great dissenter watching the world pass by has got to cease," he declares, "also the lackadaisical government of the past 20 years."

This policy and government has allowed big interests to gobble up developments in and outside the city without sufficient control by the people, he maintains.

His theory is, if the environs of Carmel were annexed to the city, large subdivisions and commercial developments, for example, could be controlled to the liking of the residents of Carmel and persons thinking similarly on the outskirts.

"Everyone would have a voice if the entire area were governed by people residing in an incorporated city," he asserts.

This is what he said when he ran for the council in 1958 and was defeated he emphasizes and points out that planners are now agreeing with his proposal of six years ago.

Paul Hazdovac also points out that revenue from commercial development on the outskirts would be Carmel's, if the city would extend its boundaries.

Born and educated in Monterey, Paul Hazdovac has lived in Carmel for 22 years. He is married to the former Lillian Ohm whose father, Rudy Ohm, was a Carmel pioneer. They have two children, Pat, a senior at Carmel High School, and Paula Jean, a fourth grader at Woods School. Their home is at Guadalupe and Second.

Mr. Hazdovac is a member of B.P.O.E. Lodge 1285 and the Carmel Masonic Lodge. He acts and sings with the Troupers of the Gold Coast at the First Theatre in Monterey. He also sings at various functions on the Peninsula.

"It makes people happy, so I sing, it's my hobby," he says.

We've been wondering how Mayor Whittlesey's assistant, Regan, felt about his running for re-election. So we asked for a statement and got nowhere -- just as we should with a Seeing Eye dog.

Judging from Regan's reactions during the past four years, we venture to say that her attitude is that there are worse places than the city hall dais for taking a nap.

Sometimes, too, councilmen have needed a loud yawn from Regan to make them realize that they were progressing too slowly through a lengthy agenda.

It's amazing how timely some of Regan's yawns have been!

Council candidate Stephen Grant really gets the spirit of things, especially St. Patrick's Day on March 17 when he sent a note to the Outlook's Carmel Editor. In it he greeted her humorously as "Dear Mrs. O'Lloyd" and added a bit of blarney.

Artist Fred Klepich has a great interest and admiration for sandpipers. He has studied and studied the tiny birds as they whirl and flutter and seemingly skitter backwards and forwards on the beach as waves advance and retreat.

Results of Fred's observations have been watercolors which portray amazingly the fleeting movement of these tiny birds that move so fast their legs are almost a blur.

In one of his pictures he used slow motion camera technique to capture fast movement. Each sandpiper was shown with a blur of legs in successive positions of movement.

"Young man," said a lady after looking at this picture, "You better watch those birds better next time you paint them. They only have two legs and you've given them six!"

Some people are static...and nothing else.

Higher Salaries For Teachers

The Carmel Unified School District board of education adopted a higher salary scale for teachers last week, also considered levying two special taxes.

According to Superintendent Mendill Bair, the new scale which starts at $5,200, up $300 from last year, will enable Carmel district to compete with other districts when hiring new teachers.

Top salaries in the new scale will be $9,857 for teachers in the 12th year of teaching and $10,757 for those who have taught 21 years.

Two new state laws allowed the board to consider levying two special taxes.

The first law permits a special tax to finance adult education. Estimated tax next year in Carmel district for this purpose would be eight cents the board learned.

The second law allows school districts such as Carmel to levy a special tax for educating 7th and 8th graders in a K-6 elementary, junior and senior high school program.

This law recognizes the cost of educating 7th and 8th graders in such a program exceeds the cost of education for the two grades in a K-8 and high school program.

This excessive cost may be financed under the new law by a special tax, estimated at 12 cents next year for Carmel District.

Woman's Club Silver Tea

In keeping with their usual custom on the fifth Monday of the month, the Carmel Woman's Club has planned a very special kind of meeting for March 30.

A very beautiful silver tea is planned for the members and their friends who attend the meeting at 2:30 p. m. in the club rooms at 9th & San Carlos Streets. A very unusual and entertaining program of background music will be presented by Mrs. Sunnah Park, a peninsula resident whose husband is a teacher of Korean at the Army Language School. Mrs. Park is a pianist of some note, having studied some eleven years in Korea before coming to this country. She holds a B. A. degree from Whitmore College in Spo-

Realtors Support Sunset Bonds

At its regular monthly meeting on March 13, the Carmel Board Of Realtors voted to support the City of Carmel in its efforts to acquire the Sunset School property.

Councilman Frank Putnam, who is also a member of the Board, answered questions concerning the recent Stone and Youngberg feasibility study.

"This is a priceless opportunity to acquire nearly four acres in the heart of the city for community purposes," Mr. Putnam said. The Board enthusiastically agreed and promptly passed the resolution of support.

In this resolution to support the city, the Board of Realtors joined the Carmel Business Association.

kane, Washington. Currently, she is the choir director for the Community Chapel in Carmel Valley.

Mrs. Merritt S. Hughes and Mrs. Philip Ortleby will be at the urns, and hostesses will be Mrs. L. M. King, Mrs. George Paul, Mrs. Myrtle Stoddard and Mrs. Arthur B. Zipse.

PORTER ADVENTURES

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter arrived home from Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, on Saturday night. They had been away for two weeks and had a hard time getting a seat on the plane coming home although they had reservations. President de Gaulle's visit caused unusual air travel in Mexico and resulted in the Porters having to change routes and fly to Mexicali instead of straight to Los Angeles.

Because Vallarta has no telephones, their daughter, Peggy, was unable to telephone to tell them she was getting married recently. They got her news by mail but by the time they got home she and her husband, Tim Morrow of San Juan Bautista, had flown to the Hawaiian Islands where Peggy has a home on Maui.

Yesterday, Mrs. Porter got a telephone call from her daughter-in-law, Barbara, telling her that she and her husband, Paul, were snowed in in Aspen, Colorado, and couldn't get home.

THE BEARDSLEYS' EASTER

Most families with small children have their own traditional ways of observing Easter. Carmel's largest family, the Beardsleys, has developed Easter customs which "eliminate sticky eggs all over the house," says Mrs. Beardsley.

As Easter approaches, the older girls make holes in eggs used in daily cooking and let the yolks and whites drop out of the holes leaving almost intact shells which are saved.

Just before Easter, the girls and Mrs. Beardsley make many different colors of gelatin. This is poured into the egg shells and left to set. Next step is to make a sheet of green gelatin which can be cut into bases to be placed on plates. On the green bases are placed nests made of colored shredded coconut. Shells are taken off the, by now, gelatin eggs and an egg is placed in each nest. A little whipped cream tops the colorful creations.

"The table looks so pretty," Mrs. Beardsley says of the effect when each of the 19 children is served his or her individual dessert on Easter Sunday.

In addition to the dessert, the small children are given a few candy eggs in a basket at breakfast and again at dinner time. These are eaten at the table or outside, never "all over the house." Mrs. Beardsley and the older girls prepare sweet rolls made in the shape of rabbits, another Easter breakfast treat.

Before breakfast, the Beardsleys go to Mass at Carmel Mission Basilica where some of the boys serve at the altar and some of the girls sing in the choir.

Next year, the Beardsley family will have 20 individual Easter desserts to prepare as Mrs. Beardsley is expecting an addition to the family on April 10.

TV STATION BEAT PIERRE

Thursday, Mrs. Jerry Carlson was busy at the Carmel Democratic Women's bazaar and her son, Pierre Salinger, tried in vain to reach her by telephone from Washington, D.C., to tell her that he was going to resign his position as President Johnson's press secretary and announce his intention to file as a candidate for Democratic U. S. Senator from California.

Consequently, she was caught by surprise when a television station called to ask her reaction, shortly after she returned home late in the afternoon.

"I know nothing about it," she said.

Half an hour later, Pierre called again and told her he had tried to reach her earlier and be the first to tell her his news.

"I am very excited that he has entered the political arena in California," she later told the Outlook. "He is a native son of San Francisco and a graduate of Lowell High School and the University of San Francisco. . . I know he has great respect for his opponents in the Senate race. . .

"I have no doubt that he'll make it if he can qualify to file."

OFF TO EUROPE

Mrs. F. Robert Smith returned from Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, a few weeks ago and now she is preparing to travel again. On April 1 Lilli will leave by air for New York with Paris her next stop. In France she will meet Lucy Szczepanski of Carmel and with her travel to Algiers. There they will be the guests of Lucy's brother-in-law and sister. A desert tour is included in plans for their visit.

From Algiers, Lilli and Lucy will go to Rome, then fly to Warsaw to visit Lucy's parents. Following this, the two travelers have plans to visit Switzerland, Paris again, and London before returning to New York and then home. They will be away for a month.

FIRST CARMEL VISIT

Tomorrow, Linda Farnsworth of Phoenix, Arizona, will arrive for her first visit to Carmel. She will be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Valerio Giusi, during a week's vacation from freshman year studies at Arizona State University. Another Carmel relative of Linda in Carmel is her aunt, Mrs. Gustav Erbe.

FEHRING REUNION

Ten-months-old Debbie Davini will spend her first Easter in the home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fehring. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Davini of Yuba City and Dave's mother from Cloverdale will also be Easter weekend guests at the Fehring home. In addition, the Fehring's oldest daughter, Janet, will be home from Stanford with two friends, and the third daughter, Joy, from the University of California at Davis. Julie and Joann, the younger Fehring girls, will complete the family party. Missing from the group will be Debbie's great-grandparents, who left last week to spend Easter with their son "Dutch" Fehring in Menlo Park.

WAYFARER BOOK REVIEWS

BY MRS. FRED W. MAY

Book reviews are being given by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray on April 3 and 17, in the fellowship hall of the Church of the Wayfarer.

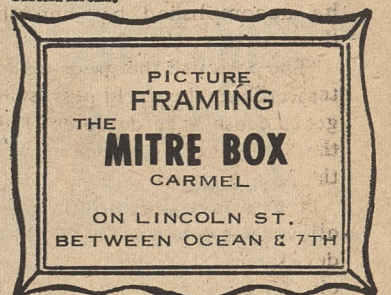

Mrs. C. John Viking is general chairman of the series sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The reviews will start at 7:30 p. m., followed at 8:30 p. m. by a social hour during which coffee and sweets will be served.

"The House That Tai Ming Built," by Virginia Lee, will be reviewed April 3. From Canton, China to San Francisco's Chinatown is the sweep of this first novel by a young San Franciscan.

Walter Kerr's book, "The Decline of Pleasure," will be up for discussion on the final program on April 17. This book raises the question why Americans are unhappy, tells about the pleasures of life and presents an invitation to experience them.

Assisting Mrs. Viking in arranging the book review series are Mrs. H. J. Danelz, co-chairman; Mrs. Larry Cunningham, president of the Woman's Society; Mrs. Donald G. Roberts, social chairman; Mrs. Gordon W. Lundeen, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Gordon E. Knoles, ticket chairman, and Mrs. Fred W. May, publicity chairman.

First Aid

The Carmel Valley Volunteer First Aid Unit was called to Laurel Drive at 1:03 a. m. March 14 to transport Hal Graham to the Community Hospital for treatment of lacerations over the right eye sustained in a fall.

Clyde Lucas of Panetta Road who is recovering from injuries received recently in an auto accident was taken to the Community Hospital March 14 in the Red Cross ambulance and returned home on the 15th following five additional transfusions.

Mrs. George Seideneck of Miramonte Road fell at her home on March 16 at 9:16 a. m. and was taken to the Monterey Hospital, Ltd. with a compound fracture of the left ankle and scalp lacerations.

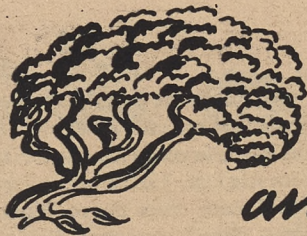

CANCER SOCIETY

Special Precautions Taught CV Firemen

Carmel Valley Fire Department has received special instructions from the American Cancer Society for first aid treatment of laryngectomees.

Laryngectomees are men, women, sometimes children, whose voice boxes have been removed in cancer operations. First aiders who have learned to apply standard mouth-to-mouth resuscitation are being informed of possible fatal results when the method is attempted with accident victims who are laryngectomees.

Carmel Valley first aiders and rescue workers are being urged to contact the American Cancer Society in Monterey for information on how to recognize the vital differences between conventional breathers and those who breathe through the neck, and the proper method of treatment.

Under the Oaks and Among the Cactus by Mildred Hattan.

It is a long established fact that Spring and poetry go hand in hand; but never before has there been such a charming presentation as the film, "Poetry For Me" shown last week at Tularcitos School. Produced by the local combination of Grover and Jennings Educational Films, the movie in color showed the rhythm of poetry through various poems. It was loaned to Mrs. Viola Bellemans in whose room the star of the show, is a student. The children were delighted to be able to identify their classmates - Peter and Bud Guin - among various familiar Valley and beach settings.

Anne Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Mayo of the Rancho Del Monte Country Club was presented for the Sacrament of Baptism last week at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillett were chosen as the little girl's Godparents.

There is currently at Reuben's a selection of paintings done by Valley artist, Richard Reams, who has devised a technique by which he conquers still lifes and portraits in oils through a simple mathematical equation, has spent two years compiling a book, "Miracle Art Method". Now in publication, the book of instruction unravels the mysteries of art so that it is possible for anyone to produce a portrait in oils with satisfying results. Reams, a resident of Ford Road, recently donated a portrait of the late President Kennedy to the Carmel Democratic Women's Club to be used for auction.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has appointed John Marble, well known Valley Cattleman from the Tularcitos Ranch to a special 22 man committee to study the economic problems of the domestic cattle industry. In announcing the appointment, Congressman Burt Talcott stated that he is "most pleased that our district and the beef producers will be so ably represented."

Mrs. Amy J. Goold of Lower Circle is serving on an all woman jury in Salinas (of which there haven't been more than two in the last five years) currently hearing a superior court trial concerning a damage suit against the Southern Pacific railroad company. In order to understand jargon familiar to railroad employees, but gibberish to outsiders, it has been necessary to furnish an interpreter when witnesses like Millard Jennings, general yard mast at Watsonville, take the stand using such terms as "high-ball, kick'em, reefers, gondolas, hoppers, grabirons" and the like. The ladies agree that they have received a liberal education in the innerworkings of railways as well as court procedure!

A warm Valley welcome to newcomers on Boronda Road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bussinger. The Bussingers are former residents of Colorado Springs, and Doreen is emphatic when she says that she doesn't miss the snow of Colorado one bit! Daughter Leslie, 5, and son Daniel, 2, complete the family. Bob is an associate of an insurance company.

The March meeting of the Auxiliary of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department was held last week at the home of Mrs. George Palmer on Paso Hondo.

Following the marriage last week of her son David (who has been a frequent Valley visitor) Mrs. Donald Kennedy left March 13th on a tour of the Orient. Friends are staying in her home on Rancho Road.

Scene: West Carmel Valley Road. Props: One red pickup with gas gauge reading "empty". Character: NOT Station Owner Bud Hall walking towards the Village!... oh yes, it was!

Mrs. Robert Meyer of El Caminite entertained the wives of the Couples Club of the Community Chapel on St. Patrick's Day. Her tea table was a tribute to the Irish with a green cloth centered with an arrangement of green and white carnations. Guests were served tea sandwiches, cookies and shamrock decorated petit fours while plans for the remainder of the year were discussed. Attending were the Mesdames Woody Davis, John Mark, Sung Park, Don Johnson, Walter Mauzey, Huby Jones, Tom Anderson, Norton Goodsell, and Ken Dickerson.

Jottings from the Sheriff's Blotter

Loreto Candy, real estate saleswoman who last week reported a broken glass sliding door at a vacant house in Rancho Rio Vista, entered two more complaints this week -- additional broken windows in the same house, occurring on separate days. Replacement cost of last week's damage, an estimated $180; this week, $200.

Louis Gardner reported that 25 feet of picket fencing had disappeared from rental property he owns at 22 Via Contenta.

Ernest Windesheim, Berkeley resident who maintains a weekend home at the end of Deer Meadow Place reported on March 21 that within the past 3 weeks the home had been ransacked; beds and bathrooms were used and house left in untidy condition. Entry was made by taking screws off an outside bedroom door. Missing: whickey, gin, cigarette lighter, flashlight, razor, comb and brush, automatic pistol.

Neighbor had noted three teenage boys near house Sunday, March 15, one with red hair. Other leads now being followed.

Miss Helen Heavey, personal secretary to Mrs. Frances T. Hudgins of Carmel, reported that for the second time, lawn furniture had been thrown into a swimming pool of a home owned by Mrs. Hudgins on Country Club Drive. Neighbors had observed 2 boys, 12 or 13 years old approximately, with black dog, "looking the place over" a few days previously.

MILD SUGGESTION FROM A KIBITZER: Parents might warn children seriously to stay away from empty houses, if only to avoid suspicion.

Law Enforcement Group Meets Again

The delegates from the Valley's major organizations who have been unofficially considering law enforcement and the juvenile problem locally, met again Monday with Col. George Brown as Chairman Pro-Tem. Also present were Lou Gardner, Mrs. Irving Ollason, Corenne Smith (substituting for her husband, Jim Smith), Rex White, Jim Brock, Bessie Irvin, Don Johnson and John Sigourney.

Lloyd Swanson, who had been scheduled to discuss his idea (and that of Tom Hudson) of a Youth Guidance Council for Carmel Valley was unexpectedly unable to attend, but the presence of Mrs. Margaret Sell of the County Probation office helped spark a spirited discussion.

For the nonce, the group decided on two actions: Bessie Irvin and Jim Brock were delegated to learn from Lloyd Swanson at the earliest opportunity exactly what comprises the operation of the type of council suggested, then to visit (at Mrs. Sell's suggestion) Juvenile Judge Stanley Lawson to determine his reaction to this type of approach.

A motion was also passed to have Col. Brown write a letter to the Board of Supervisors asking a careful consideration of the possibility of obtaining additional use of Sheriff's cars for Carmel Valley.

ANNE LOOMIS MARRIES RICK BALDWIN

Anne Loomis and Richard Baldwin were married last Saturday, March 21, at the Church of the Wayfarer, Carmel, with Dr. Fillmore Gray officiating. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Loomis of Schulte Rd., Carmel Valley, wore a white lace gown with fitted bodice, tiered skirt, and a shoulder-length veil with a pearl crown. She carried a round bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Maid of Honor, Miss Shonie Spicer, a schoolmate of Anne's at Modern Beauty College in Salinas, wore a full-length gown of peau de soie in azalea pink and carried pink carnations mixed with white. The bridesmaids, similarly gowned, were the Misses Susan and Pamela Baldwin, sisters of the groom, and Miss Carol Cope-land. "Junior bridesmaid" was Miss Meredith Medeiros, a niece of the bride. The bridesmaids also carried round bouquets, but white mixed with pink. All the bouquets were intertwined with white satin loops.

The groom, a former president of the Carmel Youth Center and well known in Carmel, chose Dennis Gudgel of El Nido, a schoolmate of some years ago, as his best man. Ushers were George Pollock, Michael Cole, Gary Donat, and Stanley J. Pyzik, a nephew of the bride.

Rick and Anne both graduated from Carmel High School, he in '62, she last June. Rick attended Monterey Peninsula College until recently, when he went to work for Carmel Builders Supply. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William W. Baldwin of Sycamore Place, Carmel.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Masonic Welcome Home, Mike!

Mike Antoncich, recovering from a successful operation, was back in his office at Irene Baldwin's last Monday morning.

"He came through with flying colors," said his wife, "and is especially happy to be home for Easter since all the kids will be home at once." The Antoncichs' three college students at the moment include Mike, Jr., at UC of Berkeley, Gay at UC of Santa Barbara, and Francie at San Francisco State.

"What also makes a lot of difference," Mrs. Antoncich continued, "is the wonderful attentions his friends showered upon him. I've suddenly realized I've got to be a lot more thoughtful myself. Those cards -- some of them are a howl -- sure help to brighten those hours in the hospital when there is nothing to do. This is certainly a nice little Valley that way!" (Ed. Note: From what we have heard about Betty Antoncich, she is already one of the most thoughtful people in Carmel Valley when others are ill.)

EYE TESTS FOR TOTS

Eye tests for pre-schoolers, aged 3 through 5, will be held from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. Thursday, April 2 at the Monterey Public Library. Tests are to determine visual acuity and detect gross eye defects. They are given by Monterey County branch of the National Society for Prevention of Blindness, with the knowledge that 50% of all blindness can be prevented if causes are detected early.

Hall with champagne punch and a buffet meal for about 150 guests.

Said the bride's mother, "It's so seldom that one reads about a wedding that the kindness of friends is what makes it memorable for the family. We were so touched by the helpfulness of their friends, and the wonderful gifts."

Among out of town wedding guests were Rick's four grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Baldwin of El Nido and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hurd of Hanford; Anne's sister and brother and their families -- Mr. and Mrs. Carl Medeiros of San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. Russel E. Dion of Los Angeles. Another sister, Mrs. Joseph Rodrigues of Rhode Island, was unable to attend but telephoned, as did a foster daughter of the family, Mrs. Joseph Nixon of North Attleboro, Mass.

The young couple left for a honeymoon at Yosemite, scheduled to return yesterday -- by which time it was earnestly hoped that the remodeling of their new home, in Seaside, would have been completed!

4-H

BY DAWN POWERS

After our club demonstrations, many of our members took them on to County demonstrations.
These were: Bill Muscutt, Nancy Crow, Janet Powers, Tom Crow, Hazel Jacoby, John Jacoby, Dawn Powers, Ned Orrett,
John Vanetti, Candy Gregory,
Lori Walcott, Tania Granoff, and Shannon Gregory. With all these people, we got three Gold Awards, ten Blue Awards, and one Green Award. Out of these, three will go to Regional Demonstrations.

With the County demonstrations,
Carmelo 4-H Club also held a talent show. Its title was "The Fruitful Seed." It was the story of how the 4-H grows. In this talent show we had John Jacoby and Elaine Bennett as musicians.
We had ten candle bearers, and a choir of about ten people. We had two narrators, these being Jackie Beck and George Coleman.

WE WON FIRST PLACE !
And we owe our success and thanks to our recreation leader, Sue Bartlett. To Sue goes our sincere gratitude and wishes that she'll be with us many more years.
Thanks, Sue!

Hidden Hills Hogan Housewarming

Three dozen friends surprised Mrs. Ed Hogan when she returned (somewhat annoyed) to her new home in Hidden Hills on Tuesday evening of last week, convinced that a mixup in dinner reservations was spoiling what should have been a perfectly good birthday celebration.

The occasion was threefold. Ed had arranged a special surprise for Jeanette because of what he termed "One of those critical birthdays"; this was the first party in their brand-new home -- and it was also a celebration for the completion of the first home in Hidden Hills.

Guests could not get over the "settled" look of the ranch-style abode, with the family's colonial style furnishings looking as if they had been there since the Revolution. The young lady responsible was Miss Carola Hogan, who had everything so organized that early guests at her parents' party could find nothing more helpful to do than begin on the Champagne. No sooner had all the guests arrived than Carola, by prearrangement, disappeared like the Pied Piper with assorted children of guests, visiting young cousins, etc., the juvenile contingent journeying to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zdan to be "babysat" by Miss Hogan.

Besides the Zdans, guests included the Messrs. and Mesdames Morden Buck, Larry Horan, Jim Ziegler, Charles Crush, Jay Porter, Howard Brown, Ed Riddell, Boyd Huff, Skip Lloyd, Dallas Pack, Jack Rauber, Les Burdett, Russell Branch, Professor and Mrs. John Turner, Dr. and Mrs. Clancy Van Horn, Dr. and Mrs. Toland Doud, Cdr. Emmet O'Neill, and Mrs. George Horne of Hamilton, Mass. Mrs. Horne is Jeanette's sister who is visiting the Hogans in the new home which Ed designed and on which the family did much of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Diaz, Jr., arrived during the height of the festivities with a stationwagon load of Mexican viands for the guests' supper. It was the first time Plaza Linda had tried catering, and approval was everywhere voluble.

GET WELL QUICK to Mrs. Milton Frumkin, who is recuperating at the family home on Saddle Mt. Ranch following major surgery at Community Hospital.

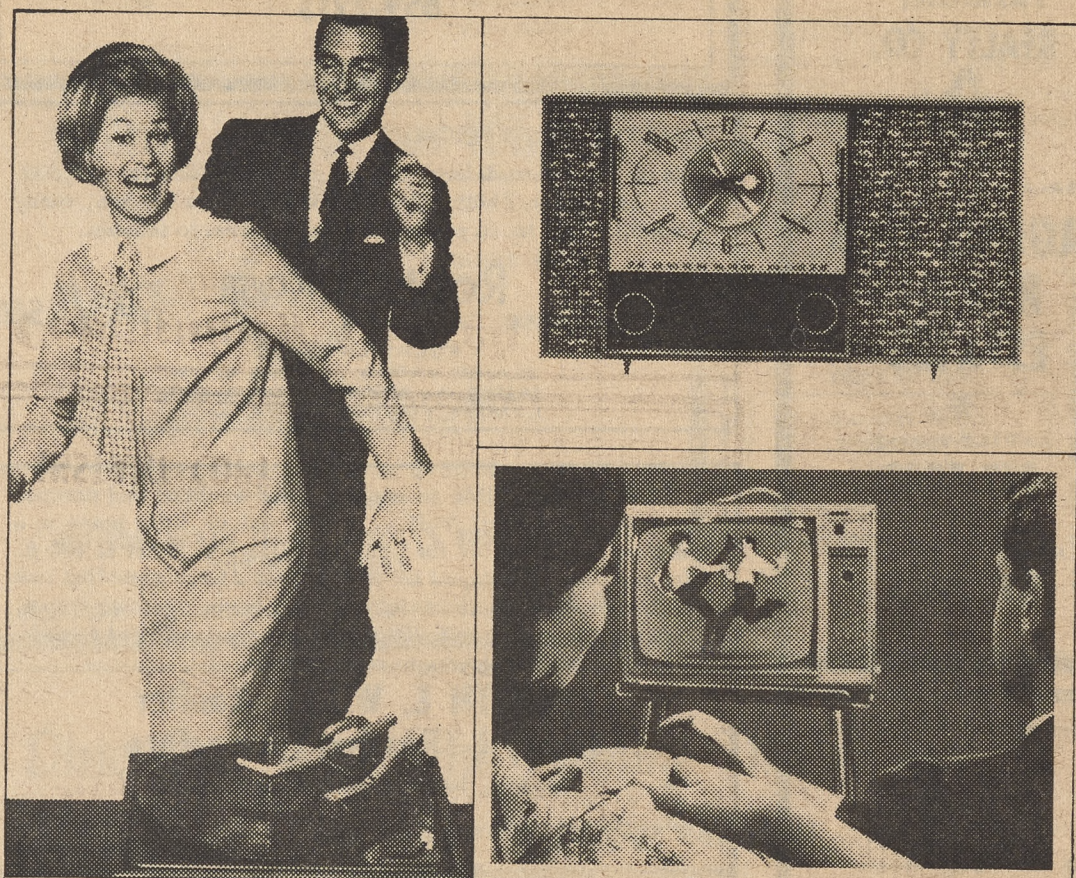

Cover Picture

"Is it an etching?" inquired the first person who walked into the Outlook office and saw the original print from which our Easter cover is reproduced. No, not an etching, but a Jim Ziegler photo. The thoughtful composition and skilled contrasts of light and shade in Ziegler's work frequently leads viewers to suspect they are seeing "more than" a photograph. (In our opinion, all too few people realize how much artistic judgment, sense of timing, etc. is involved -- as well as mere technical skill -- in the achievement of a really good photo!)

This one was taken at Rancho Don Juan in Carmel Valley -- not, as localites may first suspect, on the Salinas Highway, where the lambs are also in evidence annually at this season.

At our request, Rev. James Brock of St. Dunstan's obliged with 9 biblical quotations appropriately mentioning lambs and flocks... but said the 23rd Psalm was his favorite. Ours, too!

Now hear this:

Nowadays entertainment costs you less because your PG&E rates have gone down

Nearly everything has gone up in price these days... except your PG&E rates. They have gone down lately. As a matter of fact, the typical PG&E household customer pays less today than 30 years ago for the same amount of gas and electricity. But count the things around your home that gas and electricity are doing for you and your family today. You are using 3 times as much as they did 30 years ago. So naturally, though the unit price is lower, your bill is bigger. Any way you look at it, you live better for less because PG&E service is a bigger bargain than ever.
